

Giovanni became a Foundation Governor at St Joseph's three years ago. Having been a secondary school teacher for most of his working life, seeing children progress through the education system is very dear to him. As a music graduate, his interests extend into the broader community, mainly through parish and diocesan work. At present, his is organist at the parish of the Sacred Heart and St John the Evangelist and musical director to the Westminster diocesan pilgrimage to Lourdes. Giovanni is a member of the school improvement committee.
