

Kevin joined the Governing Board as a Parent Governor in January 2019 and now serve as the Currciulum Committee Chair. He has three daughters, with the eldest currently in Year One at Sacred Heart. Professionally, Kevin have spent many happy and formative years as a teacher and senior leader in Catholic primary education. Teaching in some fantastic institutions, led by inspirational headteachers and senior leadership teams which has helped to shape his educational thinking. Kevin feels privileged to be working on the Governing Board of this special community and he is enjoying the opportunity to support and challenge the School in its mission.